Find a Fellowship

Enriching experiences, exploration of aquatic science in real-world settings, plus mentoring and stipends—find a fellowship that fits your interests. Wisconsin Sea Grant/Water Resources Institute are pleased to highlight these 2017 and 2018 opportunities.

Dean John A. Knauss Marine Policy Fellowship seagrant.noaa.gov/FundingFellowships/KnaussFellowship/ProspectiveFellows.aspx

This competitive Sea Grant program provides a one-year internship either on Capitol Hill or with a federal agency in the Washington, D.C., area. It is strongly recommended that initial applications are submitted by Jan. 17, 2017 to be able to incorporate constructive feedback into a final submission due Feb. 10, 2017.

Great Lakes Commission-Sea Grant Fellowship glc.org/about/scholarships-fellowships

This fellow works with members of the Great Lakes' science, policy and information/education communities to advance the environmental quality and sustainable economic development goals of the Great Lakes states. Check website for deadline information, anticipated early February 2017.

National Marine Fisheries Service/Sea Grant Joint Graduate Fellowship Program

This fellowship is open to U.S. citizen Ph.D. candidates who wish to pursue work in population dynamics and marine resources economics in a summer experience under the supervision of the National Marine Fisheries Service. Apply by Jan. 27, 2017.

NOAA Coastal Management Fellowship coast.noaa.gov/fellowship

This two-year fellowship provides on-the-job education and training opportunities in coastal resource management and policy for post-graduate students. Apply by Jan. 20, 2017.

J. Philip Keillor Wisconsin Coastal Management-Sea Grant Fellowship

Wisconsin Sea Grant and Wisconsin Coastal Management Program are excited to offer a fellowship for postgraduate students, named in honor of Phil Keillor, an esteemed Great Lakes coastal engineer who worked nearly 30 years for Wisconsin Sea Grant. This one-year fellowship provides on-the-job education and training opportunities in coastal resource management and policy, hosted at the Wisconsin Coastal Management Program. Check go.wisc.edu/7x4056 for more information in early 2017.

Wisconsin Water Resources Policy Fellowship

The Wisconsin Water Resources Institute is teaming up with the Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources to provide this one-year fellowship. This opportunity provides on-the-job training in water resources, science and policy at the DNR. Check wri.wisc.edu for deadline information in early 2017.

Further details can be found at the "students" tab at seagrant.wisc.edu.
